On an annual basis, or upon request by the MPLC, LICENSEE shall furnish the MPLC with the information the MPLC may require to determine the license fee for subsequent contract years. The license fee for each subsequent contract year shall be due and payable no later than each anniversary date during the term of this Agreement. Late payments for subsequent contract years will be subject to a charge of one and one-half percent (1.5%) of the license fee per month.

- In the event the MPLC engages an attorney to enforce its rights under this Agreement by virtue of the breach on the part of LICENSEE, of any term of this Agreement, LICENSEE agrees to pay the reasonable costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred by the MPLC.

The Umbrella License®

The Copyright Compliance Solution for the Legal Use of Motion Pictures

Why Do We Need a License?

- ▶ Pre-recorded home videocassettes or DVDs (hereinafter referred to as "Videos"), those commonly available in retail stores, are intended for personal, private, home use only. Viewings outside of the home, such as in a summer camp, conference center, or child care facility, require a license.
- ▶ Title 17 of the U.S. Copyright Act gives copyright owners control over the use of their works. Civil penalties for unauthorized exhibitions start at $750 for each inadvertent infringement and go as high as $150,000 for each egregious violation.

Legal Peace of Mind Is Within Reach

- ▶ The Motion Picture Licensing Corporation (MPLC) is an independent copyright licensing service exclusively authorized by motion picture studios to grant the MPLC Umbrella License. The license allows for unlimited showings of all MPLC-authorized motion picture titles within licensed facilities. The Umbrella License provides the most diverse programming available from over 100 producers, ranging from independent and major Hollywood studios, to family values and foreign producers.

The Simple Solution

- ▶ For almost 15 years, the American Camp Association and the MPLC have worked together to educate members about the benefits of video licensing and to promote the wide range of programs that are available when your camp obtains an MPLC Umbrella License. As the camping season approaches, please be advised that if you wish to have video programs on your grounds, a video license is required. Now is the best time to take advantage of the ACA member discount and obtain your MPLC Umbrella License at a savings of up to $80 off the non-member rate.
- ▶ Over 250,000 locations in the U.S. and over 450,000 locations worldwide, from the smallest camps and libraries to the largest multi-national corporations and federal government agencies, have the MPLC Umbrella License.
- ▶ To obtain a license, simply complete the application provided in this brochure and send it to the MPLC. Upon receipt, a Certificate of License will be sent to your attention, and you can begin showing Videos from MPLC's wide range of producers immediately!

Questions & Answers

- Q. We own the Video, do we still need a license to view or show it at our facility?
 - A. Yes. The location requires a license regardless of who owns the Video. While you may own the actual Video, you are only granted the right to view it in your home, not to perform it in public.
- Q. We are non-profit and do not charge admission. Do we still need a license?
 - A. Yes. The U.S. Copyright Act applies equally to non-profit and for-profit organizations, regardless of whether an admission fee is charged. In fact, the Umbrella License does not cover showings where an admission fee is charged.
- Q. We are not open to the general public. Do we still need a license?
 - A. Yes. Any location outside of the home is considered public for copyright purposes.
- Q. We rent our facility to other groups. Can we be held liable for copyright infringement?
 - A. The exhibitor is considered the "primary infringer," but the owner may be held vicariously liable or considered to be a "contributory infringer."
- Q. How much does the license cost?
 - A. Through an agreement with ACA, members receive discounted pricing based on the capacity of their facility. ACA members can save up to $80 off non-member rates!
